

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

MAJOR and Mrs. William Munford announce the engagement of their daughter, Eliza Munford, to the Rev. A. E. Rachal, of Shawsville. The wedding will take place on June 2d. Before her marriage Mrs. Eliza was Miss Pearl Taylor, youngest child of President John Taylor, and his second wife, Mrs. Julia Gardner Taylor. Mrs. Taylor removed from her country home, "Sherwood Forest," on James River, to Richmond some years before her death. Mrs. Eliza made her debut here, where she was greatly admired. She met Mr. Rachal, a representative of his section of the State in the Legislature, and their marriage in St. Peter's Cathedral, this city, is still recalled as a fashionable and largely attended nuptial event.

Miss Eliza is closely connected with the Munford, Langhorne and Ellis families, and has many Richmond and Virginia relatives.

Miss Addams at Club.
A very large audience, composed of members and many out-of-town guests, greeted Miss Jane Addams, head of the Hull House Settlement at Chicago, at the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon. Probably no other woman in the United States is so widely recognized as an authority on philanthropic work along practical lines as Miss Addams, whose life-long experience lends to everything she says the force of undoubted reality.

A reception to the distinguished speaker was held at the close of her talk and many desiring an introduction were presented.

Hostesses at the lemonade bowl. Misses Fanny Munford and Ann Watson Archer, were assisted by Miss Alice N. Parker, Mrs. W. A. Witherspoon, Miss Helen Weidman and Mrs. L. R. Dashiell. At the tea table Mrs. W. J. Leake and Mrs. J. C. Robertson presided, with Mrs. R. H. Lindsey, Mrs. Corydon Sutton, Mrs. J. W. Harrison and Miss Lou Leigh as assistants.

The monthly meeting of Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will be held at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning in Lee Camp Hall. Members are requested to be present. An invitation is extended to all visiting daughters to attend.

TO HAVE NEW CHURCH.
Steps Taken by Cabell Street, Lynchburg, to Erect New Building.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, VA., May 11.—The congregation of the Cabell Street Baptist Church yesterday took steps by the appointment of a committee to begin the work for a new home for the church. For several years the present building has been too small, and it is more than probable that the work on the new church will be started during the coming summer months.

Rev. Oscar E. Sams yesterday completed his second year as pastor. During the morning service he read a statement to the large congregation, which showed that wonderful progress has been made under the present pastorate.

Mr. Sams came here two years ago from Harrisonburg and the church has made steady growth in membership and influence since he took up the work.
